22nd Commonwealth Law Conference 2021

Call for Bids to Host

The Commonwealth Lawyers Association (CLA) is inviting the legal associations of the Commonwealth to submit a bid if they wish to assist the CLA with hosting the 22nd Commonwealth Law Conference in 2021.

Commonwealth Law Conferences are usually held in different Commonwealth countries and previous conferences have successfully been held in Cape Town (2013), Glasgow (2015), and Melbourne (2017), to mention but a few. These conferences attract many hundreds of delegates from across the Commonwealth to debate current issues affecting legal practice and the profession, exchange views and experiences with colleagues, and get up to date with the latest commercial products and services.

If your institution is interested in assisting the CLA with hosting the 2021 conference in your jurisdiction, please send notification of your interest, together with a request for full application guidelines to: info@commonwealthlawyers.com

The deadline for receipt of submissions is 5pm (GMT) on Thursday 31st January 2019.
