

Peter Knox QC

Peter Knox QC was called to the bar of England & Wales in 1983 and has been in silk since 2006, he is an experienced advocate in commercial, chancery, professional negligence, property, and constitutional and administrative Law. In particular, he frequently appears before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in a broad range of appellate work. He has acted for most of the Governments in the Caribbean on many high-profile cases and has advised on the drafting of a considerable amount of legislation. His name appears in many reported cases.

He recently, successfully acted for A&V Oil in an arbitration claim against the former state oil company of Trinidad & Tobago, Petrotrin, arising out of the notorious 'fake oil' scandal.

Peter practices from 3 Hare Court Chambers and was Head of Chambers from 2013 to 2018.

Peter was appointed as a Deputy High Court Judge in 2018. This is a part time appointment, and he continues to practice.