

Brigid Napier

Brigid Napier is a senior director at Napiers, a firm founded by her grandfather in 1929.

Brigid entered the Role of Solicitors in Northern Ireland in 1987 after graduating from Queen's University Belfast and after completing her post graduate studies at the Institute of Professional Legal Studies.

Brigid is a Licensed Insolvency practitioner, obtaining her Insolvency Licence in 1993 and advises in all areas of corporate and personal insolvency as well as being appointed Liquidator and Trustee in Bankruptcy in variety of insolvency cases. Brigid specialises in Corporate Recovery seeking alternatives to formal insolvency proceedings and also acts as both Nominee and Supervisor in Company and Individual Voluntary Arrangements. Brigid has been ranked Band One for Personal Insolvency in the UK by Chambers & Partners. Brigid was appointed a Notary Public in 1998.

In 2017 Brigid was elected to the Council of the Law Society of Northern Ireland and has chaired a number of the Law Society Committees and is currently Junior Vice President. Brigid will take office as President in November 2021.

Brigid has been awarded "The Best in professional services" from Women in Business and awarded an advanced coaching certificate from the Institute of Leadership and Management.