

Rajiv Persad

Rajiv Persad is Head of Allum Chambers based in Trinidad and Tobago where he specializes in a wide array of litigation. As a practitioner he has featured in many cases involving extradition constitutional law, human rights, judicial review as well as a significant number of complex capital and non-capital criminal trials and appeals.

He has done temporary stints on the bench serving as a Judge of the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago (2009), Grenada (2013), St Vincent (2014) the British Virgin Islands (2013 & 2018 and 2019) and Montserrat (2020).

Mr Persad has served on the Integrity Commission of Trinidad and Tobago as Deputy Chairman as well as the Law Association where he is currently the Vice President.

He is an associate Tutor at the Hugh Wooding Law School where he has lectured courses in Criminal Procedure and the Law of Evidence. He has been invited on several occasions to present papers for Judges and Magistrates at Seminars in Trinidad and the Eastern Caribbean. He is the author of the chapter on the “Judicial Committee of the Privy Council” in “Taylor on Appeals” and has written papers in a number of publications on topics involving Public Law and other Criminal Justice Issues.