

Wence M.J Martin

Mr. Wence Martin was admitted to The Bahamas Bar in 2007 where his law practice was predominately geared towards civil litigation, commercial and corporate law as well as property title and labour disputes. Mr. Martin is currently employed as a senior manager in the wealth management industry. He is also a 1-year council member of the Bahamas Bar Council.

As a commercial and corporate lawyer, Mr. Martin provides advice on constitutional, legal and regulatory matters that impact both local and international markets. He assists numerous charitable / not for profit organizations including Civil Society Bahamas as well as community legal aid initiatives.

Mr. Martin received an Associate's in Teacher Education/Economics from the then College of The Bahamas. He has a Bachelor of Laws from the University of London, a Certificate of Legal Education from Eugene Dupuch Law School, and a Master of Laws from Oxford Brookes University. He also holds numerous certificates and diplomas in various disciplines such as AML-Compliance, International Taxation, International Trust Management, and International Relations/Diplomacy