Role of Lawyers in Social & Political Change in Common Law Jurisdictions Law

Thursday, 7 November 2019

12:30 – 2:00 pm

The seminar explores the way that lawyers and Bar associations, both national and international, have an important societal role in upholding the rule of law and fundamental constitutional rights. This is over and above a lawyer's professional duties to court and client. This societal role is peculiar to lawyers, as it is derived from nature of our training and our experience.

Delivered by Steven Thiru, the 31st President of the Malaysian Bar (2015 - 2017) and has been in practice for the past 27 years. He is currently the Vice President (Australasia) of the Commonwealth Lawyers Association and Exco member of Lawasia.
