

Cheryl E Bazard

Former Senator Cheryl Bazard is an Attorney in the Chambers of Bazard & Co. Her practice areas include banking law, corporate law, family law, contract and tort law, mortgages and conveyancing, probate law and immigration law. The firm also provides consultation and training in anti-money laundering and compliance. She was called to the Bars of England & Wales and The Bahamas Bar in 1991. She has more than Twenty (20) years' experience as a Compliance Professional. She is the former Legal Counsel, Corporate Secretary and Regional Director of Compliance for CIBC and CIBC First Caribbean International Bank as well as Former Director of Compliance for Scotiabank (Bahamas) Limited. Cheryl was Counsel in the Office of the Attorney General and Stipendiary and Circuit Magistrate.

She is the Founding and immediate Past President of The Bahamas Association of Compliance Officers, Former Associate Tutor at the Eugene Dupuch Law School and lecturer at the Bahamas Institute of Financial Services. She was Co-Executive Director of the Vote Yes Bahamas Campaign for the Constitutional Referendum on Gender Equality. She is a sought after speaker and a recognized leader in the compliance field. She has contributed to many journals and was the 2002 Bahamas' Compliance Officer of the Year and the 2003 awardee for the Bahamas Financial Services Board Professional Excellence Award.